

10 Reasons to be a Pax Christi Intern

Promote Peace and Justice globally, nationally and locally

Advance your personal knowledge and understanding of issues and policy pertaining to nonviolence, human rights and equality

Experience what it is to work for a non-profit and learn the interworking and structure of such organizations

Create new projects and initiatives through Pax Christi's unique level of leadership and responsibility vested in interns

Heal the wounds of war, injustice and hate through projects aimed at reconciliation among all cultures, ethnicities, nations and religions

Receive the immense gift and enrichment of working with extraordinary individuals of strong personal conviction and experience in the world of Peace and Justice.

Initiate dialogue on peace with justice issues by helping to draft thought provoking articles and newsletters

Share in the love and peace of Christ by living and working in simplicity and intentional community

Teach others about the imperative for peace and justice now through awareness and advocacy initiatives as well as through personal example

Instigate change and growth in the world and within yourself!